Dear Howard

Am enclosing some tickets for a party — each ticket good for a couple.

There will be a color parade the same evening. Think you'll like it

Give a ticket to Archie Firestone

December 4, 1936

Dear Mrs. Baker:

Would you and yours care to attend another dance this year with the compliments of Nat Rudetsky? Feeling in advance that you would like to attend, I am enclosing two tickets, each of which is good for two people, preferably couples.

We trust here that your household duties are not so onerous as to prevent your attending this function.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Nat:

Tickets received and I have sent a couple down to Mrs. Baker, who was our former Miss Earle. I will give another ticket to Firestone, and will try to bring Mrs. Wood along too.

Many thanks for these tickets.

Sincerely yours,
